COMMUNITY AND GLOBAL ENGAGEMENT

If you are seeking to engage others, here are some suggestions on how to get involved in community and global action and campaigns.

The resources page of the Eco Church section of A Rocha UK website includes advice on engaging with local schools and sustainability groups and your MP:

If you have a church school, or work closely with a community school, supporting Eco Schools is an opportunity to work alongside children and young people:

The Church of England's own environmental campaign, designed to enable the whole church to address — in faith, practice and mission — the issue of climate change, may be accessed here.

Climate Sunday is supported by the environmental 'leads' of the major denominations, and by the Christian environmental and relief and development agencies:

A Climate Emergency Toolkit has been put together in collaboration with several Christian organisations, as well as activists and church leaders:

Christian Aid, Tearfund and the Fairtrade Foundation, familiar to churches for their work on combatting poverty, campaign alongside the communities most affected by climate change:

Christian Climate Action and the Young Christian Climate Network offer resources for networking and direct action.
