Dear Friend

The Diocese of Manchester & the Centre for Black Ministries & Leadership warmly invites you to

Manchester Diocese
Minority Ethnic Anglican Clergy & Readers' Consultation

A special event for
Black and Asian Anglican Clergy & Readers in Manchester Diocese
Tuesday 24th November 2009
At Manchester Cathedral
From 6.30pm – 9:30pm
Refreshments will be provided

This consultation is to discuss training needs for serving Black and Asian clergy and Readers, including their leadership development in the context of the work of the Centre for Black Ministries & Leadership and what it seeks to achieve.

We are keen to come and share the vision of the Centre with groups of Minority Ethnic Anglicans, inform people of what is on offer and create a dialogue over what learning opportunities we need to be developing in the Centre to meet the needs and aspirations of Minority Ethnic Anglicans. We are delighted to have the opportunity in Manchester Diocese.

CBML has been set up at Queen's as a result of an initiative of the Archbishop's Council of the Church of England to create a dedicated space for theological education, learning and training that draws on the insights of Black Theology, and that responds to and engages the particular gifts and perspectives of Black and Asian Christians.

In seeking to equip and resource lay and ordained Black and Asian Christians through a variety of learning opportunities, we are setting out to be a centre of excellence for Black and Asian ministries and leadership in the churches.

We very much look forward to meeting you on November 24th or at some other future time. For catering purposes, please confirm your attendance and any dietary requirements by contacting our administrator at cbml@queens.ac.uk or Tel: 0121 452 2619.

With best wishes
