Applicant Information

Foundations for Ministry is not intended to be a Christian basics course or an introduction to theology. FFM is a course specifically designed for those active in church life who have already been rooted and established in their Christian faith; to help them further explore their gifts, vocation and calling to Christian ministry.

Given the purpose of the course, please explain in your own words why you feel that this is the right course for you at this time and what you hope to get out of doing it.

Please list any previous Christian courses or training that you done e.g. Alpha, Emmaus, START, Confirmation etc.

Please give details of any areas of Christian ministry or church life that you are already actively involved in, for example: Volunteering, Pastoral Visiting, Sidesperson, Communion Assistant, PCC Member etc.

Please give details of anything that you would like us to be aware of in terms of your specialist support needs or learning requirements. Where appropriate, we will arrange a follow-up call to discuss this further.

Incumbent's Reference

Foundations for Ministry is not intended to be a Christian basics course or an introduction to theology. FFM is a course specifically designed for those active in church life who have already been rooted and established in their Christian faith; to help them further explore their gifts, vocation and calling to Christian ministry.

Given the purpose of the course, how well do you know the applicant and how comfortable are you recommending them for this course?

Please share something of your discernment process with the applicant and why you feel that FFM is the appropriate course for them at this time.

What are your hopes and expectations for what the course will provide for the applicant?

Are there any other comments or things that we need to be aware of concerning the applicant's support needs or suitability for the course? Where appropriate, we will arrange a follow-up call to discuss this further.

Learning Mentor

During the course we strongly recommend that the applicant has a supportive learning mentor who can meet with them on a regular basis or at key review points during the course. This does not necessarily have to be the applicants incumbent but it does need to be someone that can make the time to provide support, encouragement and take an active interest in their learning journey.
